RIDE-ALONG PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Ride-Alongs are limited to one time per quarter.

You may not bring or carry any weapons while participating in the Program.

As you will be in the public as a participant of a Police Department program, we ask that you dress appropriately. The standard applied is “casual business attire”. If you are in doubt, please error towards more “business” and less “casual”. You should remain in the police car at all times, unless the Officer with whom you are riding tells you that you may get out on a call. If the Officer doesn’t tell you – ask before you get out. You may always choose to remain in the car on any call. It is the Officer’s decision whether or not you may get out on a call, this is not directed at you personally, but is a judgment on the part of the Officer.

You may not enter private property without the permission of the property owner. If you are asked to leave the property by the property owner, you must do so. The Officer is allowed to enter the property by virtue of the owner calling and requesting police assistance. The Courts have held that a property owner’s call to the police does not extend entrance permission to third parties brought by the police.

If you are a witness to a crime, you may be interviewed and asked to provide a written statement for the case file, and you may be called to Court to testify.
